MAYOR, BROWARD COUNTY

GOVERNMENT

Collaborative Leadership

Government officials work together to support expanding and relocating businesses

The Broward County Board of County Commissioners is the legislative branch of Broward County government, while the county administrator handles the administrative functions. In addition to county government, Broward has 31 municipalities that serve local residents and businesses.

At the center of a metropolitan area of more than 6 million people, Broward County operates Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport and Port Everglades, as well as dozens of other county departments and a wide range of programs.

For expanding and relocating businesses, county agencies vigilantly pursue opportunities to streamline and expedite permitting procedures, while building and maintaining a solid infrastructure for Greater

Fort Lauderdale businesses and residents.

The county commission is comprised of nine members who are elected by district. Each commissioner must be a resident of the particular district for which seat he/she seeks election. Each year, the commission elects a mayor who serves as the county's official representative and ceremonial dignitary and provides leadership on issues facing the county.
